

Herbal Henna Manufacturers in Sojat City

Sojat city is world famous for its mehendi or henna (Heena) powder. Sojat city is India's largest producer of mehendi and more than 70% of the production is exported all over the world. The mehendi plantations are really worth a visit, as you will not find it anywhere. The leaves of this plant are squashed and the paste is used to decorate the palms. Many tourists that happen to come here on their way to Udaipur or Mount Abu take a break here and apply mehendi to their palms and feet. The beautiful decorations of mehendi are unique and beautiful experience.
